

Begin Your Journey in Cybersecurity or Data Science with Drake State

Drake State Community & Technical College — in partnership with the Truist Foundation, Jobs for the Future, and edX — is offering two fully-funded, 24-week online boot camps to equip you with the fundamental skills you need to meet the growing demand for data analysts and cybersecurity specialists.

The application for a fully-funded award opens on August 23 and closes on September 6. Boot Camps start on November 6, 2023.
